MAN Truck with Backhoe Loader, 1:87

Siku MAN Truck with Backhoe Loader:

This year, siku is rolling out a real construction site sensation: the MAN lorry with backhoe loader – this low loader is no ordinary lorry, but rather the VIP shuttle that gets the heroes of the construction site moving.

And that fits, because for over 100 years, the MAN brand has stood for real heavyweights that not only transport tonnes of material, but also move the dreams of engineers and builders worldwide. From large construction sites in reality to small projects in children's bedrooms – this name is more than a logo, it is a promise. A promise that siku brings to the play area with its flatbed model.

Because once the load is unloaded, there's no stopping it: the backhoe loader digs for lost sofa treasures.
